PRAISE FOR *HOW EVAN BROKE HIS HEAD

“Hits all the frets of a powerful story: sharp-witted dialogue, vivid characters, insight into medical challenges and prose that snaps like well-placed plucks of guitar strings. . . . I hold up my lighter and turn it full-flame for Stein’s latest work. Encore!”—The Seattle Times

“A funny, bewitching, observant book about families, fathers and sons, and growing up, no matter how old you are.” —The Oregonian

“A beautifully un-shiny novel of passion, forgiveness and the life force that is fatherhood.”
—PNBA Awards Committee

“A compelling tale.” —Seattle Post-Intelligencer

“An engrossing family drama.” —Publishers Weekly

“Captivating, moving, and always observant ... a wonderful, beautiful book; I will never forget it!”
—Ben Sherwood, author The Death and Life of Charlie St. Cloud
