

Where the Dead Sit Talking Brandon Hobson

Discussion Questions

1. How does Sequoyah's difficult home life affect his relationships with the people he meets?
2. Sequoyah's interest in Rosemary seems complicated. Why do you think he is so interested in her?
3. Does Sequoyah seem dangerous? Why is George so afraid of him?
4. How are George and Sequoyah alike as fostered youth? How are they different?
5. In what ways are the Troutts effective (or not effective) foster parents?
6. Sequoyah says he would like to be Rosemary and even finds himself sneaking into her room and into her closet to explore. What feelings do you think he is experiencing regarding his own gender or identity?
7. What role does Sequoyah play in what ultimately happens to Rosemary?
8. How does the title reflect the story?
9. How does Sequoyah change from the beginning of the book to the end?